World Literatures for Our Worlds

Rossana Damiano, Roberta Sapino, Marco Antonio Stranisci, Cristina Trinchero
From the World Literatures…

- A collection of 1 million works from authors from the world

- A Digital Humanities framework for building cultural “itineraries”

- analyze the conservation, valorization and fruition of the cultural capital in the humanities

- investigate the reception of the cultural knowledge within different targets

- study the internet/book and the author/readers relationships
...to the Literature of the Territories

- linking literary works to places
- building interactive maps of our territories told by world literatures across the century
- discovering cultural itineraries based on literary works
